

MIGRATION AND CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

MAIN ISSUES

- Causes and types of migration
- Integration and identity problems
- Discrimination and xenophobia
- Exploitation of work
- Clandestine Migration
- Wounds to the dignity and unity of the family
- Abuse of women and children
- Dangers to faith and religious manipulation

MIGRATION AND SCRIPTURE

- Old Testament
 - Anthropological dimension
 - Soteriological dimension
 - Moral dimension
- New Testament
 - Christological dimension
 - Ecclesiological dimension
 - Missionary dimension
 - Moral dimension

MIGRATION AND PRINCIPLES OF SOCIAL DOCTRINE

- Right to migrate
- Right NOT to migrate
- The common good
- Solidarity and Fraternity
- Integral development of the person
- Religious freedom and evangelization
- Worker's rights
- Family's rights

CONCLUSION

- Sign of times
- Relevance of Magisterium and Moral Theology to Society
- Role of Saint John Paul II and Pope Francis